

FASCINATING FIND

CHURCH ORGAN

This Estey pump or reed organ was built by the Estey Organ company around 1925, and purchased for the Cooran Methodist Church.

It was later used in Lucy Ann Payne's home for family hymn singing and was donated to the museum by her daughter, Alvie Williams.

The organ is displayed in our Church building with other musical instruments, and it is played there each Sunday morning for the service by the Union Church.