

FASCINATING FIND

FORDSON TRACTOR

This Fordson six cylinder tractor is believed to be the first Canadian pattern tractor owned by the Gympie City Council.

Built in Michigan USA in the early 1920's, it was fueled with petrol/kerosene.

It may have been used to pull the modified horse drawn grader which is on display nearby, in the Breezeway, at the museum.