

FASCINATING FIND

WELLERS BAKERY CART

Wellers Bakery operated at Monkland, near the carwash, from 1868 until 1963. They used this cart from the 1920s until 1938, when it was replaced by a Bedford van.

Some years ago the Weller family donated it to the museum, where it is on display with many other horse drawn carts.