

FASCINATING FIND

R & T CHAFF CUTTER

Ronaldson and Tippett are well known in Australia for the stationary engines they manufactured in Ballarat.

They also produced a huge range of other agricultural equipment like this large chaff cutter donated by Margaret Cumner.

Ronaldson and Tippett were the largest maker of engines in the southern hemisphere in the 1940s.

They started in 1903 and survived till the late 1960s.

