

FASCINATING FIND

ARAB BEADS

Most of the items on display in the Fifth Light Horse Regiment Museum building are of a military nature, but not everything.

After the war many of the troops returned home with souvenirs.

This collection of Arab beads and silver jewellery were obtained from a Bedouin girl on the Sinai Peninsula in Egypt in 1916.

There are also some wonderful examples of trench art on display in the Fifth Light Horse Regiment Museum building.

